

iM Global Partner has reinforced its offshore team

Miami, - October 11, 2021. iM Global Partner, the worldwide asset management network, has announced the appointment of Luis Solórzano as Vice President - Distribution (LATAM).

Luis, who has more than 10 years of experience in sales comes from M&G Investments where he was responsible for Latin American markets. Before that worked for BBVA Asset Management in business development.

Luis will report to Peter Stockall, Director of Distribution for Offshore and LATAM, and focus on Latin American markets.

Luis has a BA (Hons) in Politics, Economics and Philosophy from the University of York, an MBA from the Universidad Francisco Marroquín and a Master in Corporate Finance and Investment Banking from the Instituto de Estudios Bursátiles in Madrid.

He will support the growth of our offshore business as iM Global Partner continues to expand globally.

Peter Stockall commented:

“Luis will help to strengthen our presence in the US offshore market local wealth industry, while deepening our footprint across Latin American markets.

“Based in Miami, which has increasingly become the hub of choice for Latin American investors, Luis will draw on his rich regional and offshore experience to support the growth of iM Global Partner’s diverse offering.

“Latin American investors are evolving and increasingly seeking to access active, institutional-level solutions across asset classes. iM Global Partner’s growing network of high-quality investment propositions deliver broad access to best-in-class solutions, supporting institutions, wealth managers and advisers to develop their offerings in onshore and offshore ecosystems.”
