
iM Global Partner appoints a new head of sales for Germany & Austria

Frankfurt - December 01, 2022. iM Global Partner announced today the appointment of Roland Schmidt as Director - Distribution, Germany and Austria. Roland will be based in iMGP's newly established Frankfurt office.

Roland has more than 24 years of experience in asset management and was previously sales director at Lloyd Fonds AG. Before that, he was with RBC Group where he was Director of European Distribution. He has also worked at Carmignac, M&G Investments, Baring Asset Management and Fidelity Investments.

Roland has an MA in Political Science and English studies from the University of Trier, Germany.

Jamie Hammond, Deputy CEO & Head of International Distribution for iM Global Partner, commented: "We are delighted to welcome Roland, who is a highly accomplished individual with long experience in the industry, covering all client channels

During the course of this year, we've hired a number of new staff across both our sales and marketing functions, and I expect us to make continued expansion in the new year. I'm confident that Roland will help us expand our business further in Germany & Austria".

Roland said: "I am truly delighted to be joining iM Global Partner, a company providing financial institutions, wealth advisory platforms and investors with access to high-quality investment firms globally. I look forward to showcasing, together with a great team, our full range of capabilities to German and Austrian investors."
