

iM Global Partner opens new office in Sweden and hires head of sales for the Nordic region

Stockholm - March 6, 2023. iM Global Partner continues to expand its international presence with the announcement today that it has opened an office in Stockholm, to cover the Nordic region, and the appointment of Karl Waltré as Director - Distribution, Nordics.

Karl was previously head of Nordic Wholesale and Office Head for Aberdeen Standard Investments and has also worked for Natixis Investment Managers, Mirae Asset Global Investments and Aviva Investors.

He has an MSc, Economics from Lund University and the University of Freiburg.

Jamie Hammond, Deputy CEO & Head of International Distribution for iM Global Partner, commented: “We are delighted to welcome Karl, who is a highly accomplished individual with long experience in the industry and in covering the Nordic region.

Over the last 12 months we have seen strong support from investors in the Nordic region and it is important that we have people on the ground to offer first-class service to our clients, and to represent our Partners strategies. I’m delighted that Karl is joining iMGP and am confident that he will help expand our business further in the Nordic region.”

Karl said: “I am enthusiastic about joining iM Global Partners, a company that provides wholesale and institutional investors with access to some of the world’s most skillful active investment firms. By opening its first Nordic office, iMGP underscores the potential as well as its long-term commitment in the region. I am delighted to be a part of this journey.”
